Medical Research Agency announces competition for non-commercial clinical trials in the area of civilization diseases

The main objective of the Competition is to develop new diagnostic and therapeutic procedures in the field of civilization diseases as part of non-commercial clinical trials.

Thanks to the implementation of the Competition, it will be possible to increase patients' access to comprehensive, multi-specialist, and above all innovative diagnostics, care and therapy. Moreover, the expected outcome of the Competition is the consolidation of the community of scientists and clinicians.

Projects submitted under the Call for Proposals must have the status of non-commercial clinical trials concerning the evaluation of the effects of a medicinal product.

The Regulations allow the funding of non-commercial clinical trials aimed at developing new diagnostic regimens, if these regimens are developed as part of a clinical trial of a medicinal product.

The competition in the field of civilization diseases will certainly provide significant support in the development of projects directly related to the objectives of the National Health Program for 2021-2025.

The call is addressed to entities such as: universities; federations of higher education and science stakeholders; PAN; scientific institutes of the Polish Academy of Sciences; research institutes; international scientific institutes; Medical Center for Postgraduate Education; medical entities for which the creating subject is a public medical university or a university conducting teaching and research activities in medical sciences or a Medical Centre for Postgraduate Education; entrepreneurs with the status of a research and development centre; entities conducting scientific research and development works that undertake the possibility of implementing projects in the form of non-commercial clinical trials.

The call for applications in the system lasts from 31 August 2021 at 12:00 p. m. to 25 October 2021 at 12:00 p.m., only in the form of an electronic document via the ICT System, available on the Agency's website <https://konkurs.abm.gov.pl/>

Questions about the competition should be sent to the following e-mail address: niekomercyjne@abm.gov.pl
